

Communications Is More Vital Than Ever

...Companies Still Need to Promote Products & Services ...Managers Still Need to Operate Facilities

Conferences, expos and sales calls may be on hold, but property and facility managers need industry news more than ever... and they need products and services to help keep buildings operating efficiently. California Buildings News editors and writers are continuing to produce useful articles...and advertising opportunities for companies that still need to communicate with their customers in America's largest and most unique marketplace.

We can help you reach decision-makers who design and operate office buildings, apartment communities, hotels, hospitals and other commercial facilities... architects, contractors, facility and property managers, engineers and others.

Recent issues at www.cabuildingsnews.com ♦ Click for media kit/ad rates

- Statewide coverage of the California buildings industry—the fifth largest in the world
- News about commercial buildings, multifamily complexes, hotels, hospitals, factories, institutional facilities
- Regional news focus on Northern and Southern California
- Ad opportunities allow you to choose either statewide or regional market pricing
- More than 25,600 print and digital readers
- Direct-mailed and distributed through more than 45 organizations like BOMA, IFMA, IREM, AIA, SMPS, CoreNet, AFE, CREW, USGBC, CAA and metro apartment associations

To learn more about how you can reach our targeted buildings industry audience, contact our publisher, Ellen Eason, at ellen@easoncom.com or 415.596.9466. Check us out at www.cabuildingsnews.com

We Are Offering
Lower COVID-19
Ad Rates